THE GRADUATE MANAGER PROBLEM

Current Opinion on the Hill Seems to be in Favor of a New System

OPINIONS WANTED

The recent discussion of the graduate manager plan on the Hill has led us to endeavor to get some representative opinion on the advisability of Hamilton's having a graduate manager.

An alumnus: "Without thinking deeply over the matter, I should say that a graduate manager would be very desirable. He could co-ordinate schedules so as to have some event on the Hill every week, and could work with, and direct the publicity of the Press Board. Perhaps he need not be given the title of graduate manager. I should be rather inclined to favor having the powers of the Athletic Director extended to include the duties of a graduate manager. The procedure now necessary for approval of schedules is much too elaborate and inefficient."

A senior: "Much would depend on the amount of power of the graduate manager. In some colleges (Oberlin, for instance) he has entirely superseded the student managers. In others he has charge of arranging the schedules and planning trips, but the details of the trips are left to the student managers. The third plan is that all schedules and expenditures be approved by him alone. Such a manager would take over the duties of the present Athletic Director and Executive Council in these respects. I strongly doubt that the first plan would be practical here. The third would mean very little change from the present system. The second plan with certain modifications, perhaps, appeals most strongly to me."

A junior: "From what I have heard, many of our alumni seem to favor such a plan. I do not believe that the time has yet come when we can do away with the present system of undergraduate managers. I do believe that our present way of arranging athletic schedules should be materially altered and centralized. If complete power to arrange schedules were given to the Athletic Director, much more efficient work could be done. This would secure for us many of the advantages of a graduate manager which other colleges enjoy. It is quite likely that with this additional work the Athletic Director would require a secretary, possibly a student, who could do much of the routine work. Hamilton has outgrown her present system of arranging schedules."

A sophomore: "Probably I am prejudiced because I am assing for one of the managerships, and my opinion may not represent the whole class, but I am opposed to any suggestion to do away with the managers. Even if I were not personally concerned, I still believe that the assing system is the best way to get done a great deal of necessary work. A graduate manager would be an expense to the college, not only for his own salary but because men would have to be hired to do the work now done by ass-managers. If the power to make sched-

DELTA SIGMA RHO BANQUETS IN UTICA

National President of the Fraternity Pays a Visit to the Local Chapter—New Men Elected

On Friday night, the Hamilton Chapter of Delta Sigma Rho, the national honorary debating fraternity, held its annual banquet in the English Room of the Hotel Utica. The main speaker for the evening was the national president of the fraternity, Stanley B. Houck. He gave a very interesting talk upon the work being done by the fraternity, and paid a tribute to Hamilton's reputation in public speaking. Other speakers were Prof. Lewis, Dr. Wood, and Prof. Patton.

The newly elected men to Delta Sigma Rho are R. Hawley Fitch, '23, J. Lester Albertson, George Burroughs, '24, Alan Lehmann, John Gualtieri, George Perrine, L. Hyler Connell, and L. H. Wood of the class of '25.

Carlyle E. Yates, '23, the local president of the organization, acted as toastmaster.

SPRING HOUSE PARTY TO BE GALA EVENT

Interesting Program Planned for Fair Visitors to the Hill—Unusually Large Number of Guests to be Present

With house-party week-end ten days off, the crowds who are entertaining are rounding out their plans, the respective men in each crowd in charge of their own party are spreading the usual propaganda that this is to be "the best Spring House-party in recent years," and the respective fraternity men, who have been unsuccessful in realizing on their bids, are frantically over-working the telegraph office and the long distance telephone. House-party week-end is Friday and Saturday, May 4 and 5. In addition to the house-parties, there is to be on Friday afternoon a baseball game with Lafayette, a track meet with St. Lawrence on Saturday afternoon, the annual Freshman Frolic, which is being held at the Psi U House, a D. T. tea dance with a circus put on by the neophytes. All the fraternities are entertaining this Spring except the Sigma Phi.

Alpha Delta Phi will probably have Hardigan's orchestra of Troy. Mrs. Edward Farrow of Rochester and Mrs. Edward Van Norden of New York have been invited to chaperon. They expect to entertain about twenty guests.

Beta Kappa is having a Utica orchestra. Dr. and Mrs. Morton Brownell of Oneonta, and Mr. and Mrs. David Powers of Oswego will be the chaperons. About fifteen guests will be entertained.

Chi Psi has Crocker's Six of Utica and will also have a tea dance Saturday afternoon. Mrs. B. T. Gilbert of Utica, and Mrs. Bristow Adams of Ithaca, will probably chaperon. There will be fifteen guests.

Delta Kappa Epsilon will have Mangin's orchestra of Syracuse. Mrs. Thomas J. Meehan of New York and Mrs. D. H. Burrell of Little Falls have been invited to chaperon, and about twenty guests will be present.

Delta Upsilon is having Tige Jew-

JOHN W. G. OGILVIE, '24.

President of Intercollegiate Fencing Association and Captain of Hamilton Team.

OGILVIE TO CAPTAIN FENCING AGAIN

Election Officially Ends Season—Success of Season Due to Expert Work of Coach Gelas

John W. G. Ogilvie, '24, was elected president of the Intercollegiate Fencing Association, at the match held April 12 and 13 at the Hotel Astor, in which Yale, Harvard, the Army, the Navy, Dartmouth, Columbia, M. I. T., Pennsylvania, and Hamilton participated.

Ogilvie's home is at Oscawana, N. Y., and he is a member of the Chi Psi fraternity. He went to St. John's School at Manlius and later to the Irving School at Tarrytown, making an excellent record in football. Heart trouble prevented his playing at Hamilton, until last fall, when he did fine work at guard until a dislocated collar bone forced him to stop. He was president of his class during his sophomore year, is a member of the D. T. Club and Was Los. He was ranked as number four on the tennis team last year.

Ogilvie has done first class work with the sabre this year. Although at West Point he was defeated by Castner and Clark, he beat Hunter and Kerr at Ithaca, and again beat them in the return match on the Hill. In the Intercollegiate, he won three out of six of the preliminary bouts, thus advancing to the finals. He defeated Kernan and Hastings of Yale, and Hawley of Dartmouth, losing to Heitzburg of Dartmouth, and Brown and Gutman of Pennsylvania. He has been reelected captain and manager of the fencing team.

Coach J. M. Gelas introduced fencing at Hamilton when he came last year. He is considered an expert in fencing. His reputation, combined with Ogilvie's hard work as manager, brought about Hamilton's admission to the Association last year.

The team has made a good record this year. After losing 12 to 4 at West Point, they beat Cornell 10 to 6, and tied them in the second match. A creditable score was made at the Intercollegiates. Since none of the team will be graduated this year, the prospects for 1924 are excellent.

TENNIS TEAM MEETS SYRACUSE SATURDAY

First Match of the Season—Team Consists of Veterans—In Good Shape

On Saturday afternoon the Buff and Blue tennis team will cross racquets with the netmen from Syracuse for the first match of the season. The Hamilton team has been somewhat handicapped by the inclement spring weather, but regular drill has been going on in the gym for several weeks.

The team has been out on the courts for several days, and is rapidly rounding out into good form. It is probable that some excellent material will be developed from the new men that have reported to Capt. Fitzgerald, but as it looks now, last year's veterans will be the mainstays of the Hamilton court men.

It is not yet known who will wield the racquets for Hamilton in the match against the Orange, but the team will probably be chosen from Capt. Fitzgerald, Bradley, Ogilvie, R. Thompson, Price, and Kelley.

CHARLATANS TO GIVE MODERN COMEDY

Choose "Dulcy" for Commencement Performance—First Three-Act Play Since "Witching Hour"—Try-outs This Week

The Charlatans will present a three-act play, "Dulcy", at Commencement and try-outs for the eleven parts will be held some time this week, according to the announcement recently made by President Baer.

This production will be the first three-act play to be presented by the Charlatans since "The Witching Hour," three years ago. It is felt that "Dulcy" will satisfy the demand for a modern three-act comedy, and it is hoped that as many as possible will try out for the parts, in order that the cast may represent the best dramatic talent in college.

"Dulcy" was written by George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly, and is a satire on the woman with the "rubber-stamp" type of mind. It was first presented at the Cort Theater, Chicago, on Feb. 20, 1921. It was so successful there that it was given a season's run at the Frazee Theater in New York, beginning in August 1921. It is now on tour through the principal cities of the United States and Canada.

The story of the play, as given by one of its reviewers is: "Dulcy" is a bride. Her other name is Smith. In her eager determination to be helpful to her husband and her friends, she plans a week-end party at her home not far from New York. The guests are an ill-chosen group of people, such as only a Dulcinea could assemble about her. The three acts reveal them just before and just after dinner on the evening of their arrival, and on the following morning. Their brief association becomes an unbroken series of hilarious tragedies. It is Dulcy's final blunder which unexpectedly crowns all her mistaken efforts with success.

Everything seems to go wrong, including the bridge, the golf, and the billiards. But the most exquisite torture she inflicts upon her hapless guests is when she invites a scenario

BASEBALL TEAM LOOKS PROMISING

Veterans Will Form a Strong Nucleus—Tillotson Out for This Season—New Men Have Possibilities

FIRST GAME MAY 4TH

With the first game of the season less than two weeks away, the Hamilton varsity baseball squad is working hard rounding into shape for a home game with Lafayette on May 4th. The Lafayette team is reputed to be one of the best collegiate teams in the East, and the Hamilton players are determined to start the season right with a victory on the home diamond. Hamilton has been handicapped, as compared with the more southern colleges, in that the squad has been unable to have outdoor practice until last week, when they practiced on their own diamond for the first time.

Mr. Prettyman has been getting his men into good physical trim with conditioning work, and the candidates have had some opportunity to show what they can do with a bat. The work thus far has been mostly inside practice, but from the indications that the varsity squad has given, this season's team will be one of the best ever turned out by Hamilton College. The truth of these predictions will be determined to some extent when the various candidates have a chance to show their abilities on the diamond.

Excellent prospects for the outfield have been somewhat dimmed by the fact that Tillotson, who broke his arm while cranking his car, will probably be unable to play this season. Tillotson had been showing up splendidly as an outfield man before the accident. He had returned early, at the risk of his health by neglecting an operation, in order to put himself into form for playing in the outfield, and it is with genuine regret that the team is forced to give up the prospects of his support for the coming season. R. Morris, a new man on the varsity squad, is expected to strengthen the outfield. Coach Prettyman and Capt. Shults are pleased with the great improvement in this year's infield. Meehan, Mulchy, and F. Hunter, all veteran infield men on the Hamilton team, show a great improvement over their last season's form, and it is expected that they will form one of the strongest combinations on the team. The contest for first base seems to be between Pottle and Hatch, both of whom gave the team good support last year. Hatch has shown ability as an outfield man, and there is a probability that he will be alternated between the outfield and first base.

Among the other Hamilton veterans who are expected to make up the team are Warren, Gifford, Marks, Yule, and Capt. Shults. Warren, Gifford, and Marks are all showing up well as twirlers. It has not yet been decided who will start the Lafayette game, but it will probably be one of these three.

There is keen competition for the other half of the battery, and probably it will not be known until shortly before the game who will start catching for the Lafayette game. Yule, who did some good work at catching last year, and Mayer, a new man on Student Cooperation.

The publications of the college have reached a critical point in their lives. The main method by which these publications receive their financial support is through the advertising columns. It has been variously estimated that the amount of advertising, solicited from Utica each college year, amounts to nearly five or six thousand dollars.

The time is coming when the Utica advertisers will refuse their support to the magazines, unless they feel that they are getting some return on this large sum of money that they are contributing every year.

It is urged, that when men here on the Hill have some need to be fulfilled, they patronize those concerns that are so generously helping the Hamilton publications. If this can be done, a great thing has been accomplished in helping out the good will of the Utica advertisers. However, if the policy of fair play toward these concerns is not followed out, then the publications on the Hill will suffer greatly.

The concerns that advertise in the papers are all leaders in their field, and there need be no worry about the quality of goods that they advertise.

A Graduate Manager.

A digested review of current college opinion on the question of a graduate manager for Hamilton appears on the front page of this issue. There seems to be a definite need for such a position. Activities here on the Hill have reached such a scope that it is indeed time that the old system should be improved.

It is absurd to think that approximately twenty-five men out of a student body of three hundred and twenty-five should be needed to handle the extra-curricular activities of the college. This system is entirely too burdensome, and it is impossible to obtain the best possible results by this method.

What is needed is some definite, centralized plan, whereby the maximum of results may be obtained with the least amount of red tape. Whether a paid graduate manager is needed, or whether the Athletic Director should have complete control of the situation, is a matter of opinion. One thing is certain, the time is now ripe for a radical change for the better.

NOTED EDUCATOR AND PREACHER DEAD

Rev. Isaac Best Passes Away After a Life of Much Usefulness—Veteran of the Civil War

The Rev. Isaac Oliver Best, '67, who was principal of the Clinton Grammar School from 1875 until 1891, died at Cliffside, N. J., on March 28.

Mr. Best's early education was received at the village school at Oswegatchie, St. Lawrence County, and at Ogdensburg, where he took a college preparatory course. He entered Hamilton College in 1861, but enlisted in the Army in 1862. He returned to college in 1865, and was graduated in the class of 1867. He was a member of Delta Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa, and was fifth man in his class in point of scholarship.

Mr. Best lost only three days while in service. He was with his regiment at Fredericksburg, Salem Heights, and Chancellorsville. He was with Grant in the Wilderness and with Sheridan in the Shenandoah Valley. A part of the time he served as clerk in the adjutant general's office. He was a good soldier, highly esteemed by his comrades, and came out of the war without wounds and in good health.

After graduating from Hamilton, he taught the classics for four years in the Bloomsburg State Normal School in Pennsylvania. Then for a year he was principal of the academy at Mt. Morris, Livingston County. While teaching, he studied for the ministry, and was ordained in 1870 by the Presbytery of Syracuse.

His first charge was at Otisco, where he preached for four years. From there he came to Clinton, where he conducted Best's Grammar School for sixteen years. It was located on College street, just below the bridge, and was at one time very prosperous. The increase of educational facilities everywhere limited the patronage of institutions like Mr. Best's, and the Clinton Grammar School suffered with the rest of its class. In 1890 he went to Broadalbin as pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and also preached at Mayfield. In 1897 he moved to Mayfield and took that church alone. He also filled a pastorate at Chili.

Mr. Best married Harriet C. Lindsay of Boston in 1868. She survives him with one son and one daughter. In 1921 he published a very interesting "History of the Hundred and Twenty-first New York State Infantry." He was a delegate to the Presbyterian General Assembly at St. Louis in 1900, had been a moderator of the Utica and Albany Presbyteries, and for more than six years served as commissioner to Auburn Seminary from the Auburn Presbytery.

Mr. Best was widely and favorably known in Central New York both as a teacher and a preacher. He was a very conscientious man and had a way of making friends and retaining them.

Wanted—
men to find the answer

THIS is written to the man who loves to seek the unknown quantity. He is the kind of laboratory worker who ventures into untried fields of experiment, rather than the man who tests materials.

Industry has need of both types, but of the former there is a more pressing demand.

College men may have been discouraged from pursuing pure research. In this highly practical age it may seem there is little room for work which does not have an immediate dollars and cents application. But such is not the case.

The pure research man is the pathfinder. Without him our fountain of knowledge would dry up. His findings in themselves may be uncommercial, but they establish a field for others to develop.

Volta worked out the crude voltaic pile—unimportant until other men improved and applied it. And so with Papin in the field of steam, or Lavoisier in chemistry.

Men of the inquiring slant of mind, stick to your last. In post graduate study, on the faculty, in the laboratory of some industrial organization, there will always be an "X" to baffle other men and call for the keenest thought of you blazers of the trail.

SENIOR BALL COMMITTEE COMPLETES PLANS

Committee Promises Big Social Event to Wind Up the Year

Plans have just been completed and arrangements made for what the committee promises to be one of the best Senior Balls held in recent years. The dance will be held, as last year, in the gym on Friday evening, June 15, which is the Friday following the close of examinations. The committee in charge of the dance is Virgil DeWitt, chairman, John Willard, and John Fitzgerald.

Tige Jewett's six-piece orchestra of Cornell has been engaged for the occasion. This is the orchestra which the Chi Psi House had at Prom time. The fellows in the orchestra are very versatile, and often play on several instruments and go through a series of gymnastics while playing, which is always a source of diversion to the dancers. The orchestra will play from about 11 o'clock Friday evening until 6 o'clock Saturday morning.

The feature of the dance immediately following the play, in addition to the music, is the more elaboate arrangements which have been made with Miss Southworth for a buffet supper, which will be served in Commons about 1 o'clock. The supper this year will be somewhat more attractive than that of former senior dances. Tickets will be on sale within two weeks, and may be purchased from any member of the committee in charge of the dance. The tickets this year will be four dollars a couple.

NEW FRESHMAN HANDBOOK

At a joint meeting of Pentagon, the officers of the Y. M. C. A., the Executive Council, members of the Publication Board and Pi Delta Epsilon, held last Thursday night, definite plans for the new freshman handbook were formulated. Donald Jones, '24, was elected editor-in-chief and J. Lester Albertson, '24, business manager. An advisory committee was appointed, composed of Hawley Fitch, Carlyle E. Yates, and A. Laighton Seaver, all of the class of '23, Leslie E. Moore, '24, and Wallace Johnson, '09, Field Secretary of the college. It was voted to accept the estimate of the Hammersmith-Kortmeyer Company of Milwaukee, printers of the Hamiltonian for the last two years.

The Freshman Blue Book has been published heretofore by the college Y. M. C. A., but it was believed that the editing of the book should be in the hands of the Publication Board, inasmuch as the Y. M. C. A., through lack of funds, has been unable to put out as elaborate and complete an edition as a college of Hamilton's standing should have.

It is planned to put out a book four and seven-eighths by two and seven-eighths inches, handsomely bound in smooth black leather, and containing about 128 pages. The material will be similar to that in former Blue Books, but will be more complete and will contain new and interesting features. There will be several cuts of college activities and scenes, including a map of the campus. Information not contained in former Blue Books will be given, such as the rules of the competition for the various managerships, faculty administrative rules, and the rules of the Association of Undergraduate Activities. In order to conform to the new policy, the book will be known as the Freshman Handbook instead of the Freshman Blue Book. Each freshman will be required to purchase a copy, and carry it with him at all times during the first few weeks of the Fall semester.

Material for the handbook will be gathered before June 15th.

SHAVING cream caps have an uncanny habit of chumming with gravity. That's why the Williams' Hinged Cap shown here is so remarkable. You can't persuade it to roll down a drain pipe. It refuses to go near the bathroom floor. In brief, it defies all previous laws governing the behavior of shaving cream caps.

Williams' Shaving Cream, in the same way, upsets all traditions about shaving. First of all, it exceeds every known speed limit for softening the beard. You can get your face ready for shaving in less time with Williams' than with any shaving cream you ever used.

In the second place, Williams' has a positive effect for good on the skin. Your face, with the wholesome care which Williams' gives, is kept in better condition and made more comfortable.

1924 HAMILTONIAN IN HANDS OF THE PRINTERS

First Copies to be on the Hill in Time for Spring House Party

The last corrected proof of the 1924 Hamiltonian was mailed to the printers April 2nd. It is hoped that an advance shipment of the books will be on the Hill at the time of the Spring House Party, May 4.

This year's book is similar to the 1923 Hamiltonian but contains a few distinct innovations. Pictures of members of the faculty are not being run this year and the faculty section has been reduced to make room for a section of campus snap-shots at the end of the book. Eight pages are devoted to snap-shots representative of the four seasons. There are four more pages of snap-shots of the last Paddle Day and of Intimate Glimpses into the lives of more or less distinguished persons on the Hill. This year's book will contain more snap-shots than any previous edition of the Hamiltonian.

Subscription blanks for the purchase of the book are now in the hands of members of the Board. It is the belief of those who have seen the proof, that the book is well worth the price, and that no man on the Hill can well afford to miss buying and preserving a copy.

COLONEL JENKS, '01 RECEIVES CITATION

Awarded Distinguished Service Medal for Work Done in the Meuse-Argonne Section

Col. Glen Fay Jenks, valedictorian of the class of 1901, and a member of E. L. S., has been awarded the distinguished service medal for his services in the Ordnance Department, United States Army, during the World War.

His citation reads: "For exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services in positions of great responsibility, as Chief of the Heavy Artillery Division, office of the Chief Ordnance Officer, American Expeditionary Forces. He displayed foresight and excellent judgement combined with professional ability of the highest order, in the development of allied artillery programs and the supply and maintenance of heavy and railway artillery to the troops in France; later as Chief Ordnance Inspector of Artillery American Expeditionary Forces. He organized and perfected to a high degree of efficiency the maintenance of the artillery of the 1st Army during the Meuse-Argonne Operations thereby contributing materially to the success of our forcer."

Colonel Jenks was also decorated by the French government for his services in France and made an "officier" of the Legion of Honor.

—On Friday and Saturday, April 20 and 21, President Ferry attended the meetings of the committees of which he is a member and the regular meeting of the College Entrance Examination Board.

On Sunday, Mar. 25, Seabury S. Gould, '68, died suddenly at Auburn. He was a member of Sigma Phi. He left three sons, Norman ., Seabury S., Jr., and Edward B. Gould, two of whom, Seabury and Edward, were Hamilton men of the classes of '11 and '13, respectively. They were also members of Sigma Phi and both fought in the Great War. Mr. Gould was for nine years president of the Gould's Manufacturing Company, makers of pumps. His sons were associated with him in the enterprise. Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian Church, Seneca Falls, on Mar. 27.

RELAY TEAM LEAVES THURSDAY FOR PENN RACES

Thursday night the Buff and Blue relay team will leave for Philadelphia for the Penn relays, which will be run off Saturday afternoon. Coach Carroll will probably take four men on the trip, although Thompson may run in the relay as well as the two mile. The final time trials were held last Saturday afternoon in which six men competed: Fenn, '23, Morris, '23, Thompson, '23, Alec and Val Alison, '24, and Watkins, '25. Coach has not yet announced his final selection of the team. Last year's team finished second in its group and this year's team is expected to carry off the honors. In the relay, each man will run a quarter mile.

Thompson, '23, will leave Thursday noon, in order to be in shape for the International Two Mile, in which he will run on Friday. Thompson placed second last year, finishing on the heels of Buker of Bates. This year Tommy is counted on to bring in the field, although there are many distance stars entered from all over the country. Buker, graduated last year from Bates, but Tommy has other dangerous rivals. Higgins of Columbia will put up a stiff fight for the honors, and Oxford is sending over an entry in Morgan, who will endeavor to capture first honors over the American entries.

No definite plan has been announced as yet for the Class Day festivities. In connection with the annual Senior Gift, several proposals have been put forward for the form it shall take this year, but it is probable that the plan to be adopted will be the presentation by the class of a bronze statue of an athlete to the college, to be placed in the new gymnasium, and on which will be inscribed each year the name of the member of the graduating class who is considered to have done the most for the college during the four years on the Hill.

CHARLATANS TO GIVE COMEDY

writer to recite one of his plots to interpretative music played on the piano by a lunatic. It is with this experience of Dulcy's bored guests that the play reaches its highest level of satirical fun.

In a review in the New York Times, Alexander Woollcott, '09, calls it "a deft and diverting comedy of character."

The New York World says: "Dulcy is a comedy of spontaneous mirth. It is one of the most entertaining comedies we have ever seen."

Work on the play will begin immediately after the try-outs and it should be an unqualified success when it is presented before the Commencement audience on June 15.

the squad, are both working hard for this position and are both showing promise of being able to hold any of the three candidates for pitcher. Williams of last year's squad gives promise of being an asset to the team and if not used in the opening game, will probably appear in subsequent games.

Other new men on the squad who have been doing good work during practice are A. Hunter, Aitken, and Griffiths from the sophomores, and Ricketts, Nicholson, Brush, Payne, and Courteau of the freshman class.

ules were taken away from managers and given to one person, I suppose they could be arranged much more efficiently than at present, but I do not believe that a graduate manager is necessary solely on that account."

Member of the Faculty: "The students are much more intimately connected with this question than we are. I would not oppose the plan of a graduate manager if the students feel that they desire one."

What do you think?

—Every loyal alumnus should subscribe for Hamiton Life.
